

Evaluation of the entry by Zlatka Damianowa

The original task set was quite surprising.

An original method of approaching architecture was found using simple architectonic means to present the way of life and attitude to life and the self-image of the dancing profession.

This was done with a great deal of sensitivity and much poetic charm.